SAVING OUR ATTRACTIONS

At the present time two landmarks of Colonial days in and about Portsmouth are being torn down or changed so as to destroy their historical value. This is a serious loss to the community and the question arises: How can these places be preserved? The private owners feel that they cannot keep them simply for show purposes, hence they are being sold and removed. The New England Historical Society has been appealed to and the Jackson home will be preserved. Other places are being considered through the efforts of local members and the Portsmouth Historical Society. Our citizens recall how The Herald saved the famous John Paul Jones House from being wrecked by buying it at auction.

SAYS DAUGHERTY ENTANGLED SMITH

SINCLAIR SAYS HE WILL NOT TESTIFY

Refuses to Answer Any Further Questions From the Oil Committee

(By Associated Press)

Washington, March 22—Harry F. Sinclair refused today to testify further before the oil committee. The oil operators said he did not take the position however, that his answers might tend to incriminate him. "There is nothing,' he said "in any of the facts or circumstances of the lease of he Teapot Dome which does or can incriminate.' In a statement made after the committee had refused unanimously to concede his plea against the authority of the investigators he declared he did not desire to plead that his replies might tend to incriminate him because there was nothing in the facts relating to his Teapot Dome lease that was oncriminating. "I shall reserve any evidence I may be able to give to the committee for those courts to which you and your colleagues deliberately referred all questions over which you had any jurisdiction and shall respectively decline to answer any questions provided by your committee.'

Miss Roxie Stinson Tells Senate Committee That Jess Smith Passed Last Six Months of His Life in Fear

(By Associated Press)

Washington, March 22—Roxie Stinson, divorced wife of Jesse Smith, "buffer and friend" of Attorney General Daugherty, resumed the witness stand today before the Daugherty investigating committee, and brought her letters to support her story of last week. Before Miss Stinson began, Senator Wheeler in charge of the inquiry declared Mr. Daugherty had done a "dirty, cowardly trick" in making charges of blackmail against her in his recent statements. Miss Stinson's eyes poured tears during Senator Wheelers statement. Chairman Brookhart read last night's statement by Attorney General Daugherty and emphasized his comment upon the committee leaving unnoticed the departments record of liquor prosecutions.

A young man named Lyle Johnson, Miss Stinson said, who represented himself as coming from Washington, offered her $1000 for a lead on where to go to get information. Miss Stinson said she refused to give any information to anybody until after she talked with Senator Wheeler. For six months previous to his death, Smith had been "in fear," Miss Stinson said, and the last evening they had together he spent mostly in telling "what not to tell and what bankbooks and papers to destroy." "I hate to abuse confidence" said Miss Stinson. "I am doing it to show you that Jess Smith was enmeshed andentangled." "Enmashed and entangled by whom?" "By the man to whom he held his greatest loyalty, Miss Smith went on. "The man who is using his great power to terrorize and intimidate witnesses". "Who is that man?" Senator Ashurst asked. "Harry Daugherty," she said.

Senator Jones asked her for a specific "deal" in which Jesse Smith had mentioned Mr. Daugherty's name and she said he had in connection with "whisky deals". In discussing whisky deals Smith told her, Miss Stinson said, that it was only through Mr. Daughertys influence that they could be put through. Miss Stinson said, Jake Hamon told her himself of a "deal" at the Chicago convention. Both Smith and Hamon told her, she said, that Hamon was to have a cabinet position. Daugherty got word, Miss Stinson said, that Smith told her "they" were "double crossing" him and he (Daugherty) went to the Chicago hotel conference at two oclock in the morning which agreed on Harding as the nominee and by "strong arm" methods arranged to have Harding backed for the nomination.

$5500 STOLEN BY PAY ROLL BANDITS

Paymaster of Roxbury Compady Held Up By Three Robbers in Automobile

(By Associated Press)

Boston, March 22—Three bandits held up Paymaster William O'Brien of the J. C. Coleman & Sons Co., in the Roxbury district today and robbed him of near $5500. They escaped. Mr. O'Brien was riding in the company automobile when a large touring car crossed in front of him a mile from the National Roxbury Bank where the paymaster had obtained the money. Three men leaped out and while two of them held revolvers to the heads of O'Brien and the chauffeur, the third drove the automobile down a side streets where the bandits seized the bag of cash. They then ran to their own car and escaped.

WOMAN CHALLENGES ANY MAN IN COW MILKING CONTEST

Abbie Knight Anxious to Show Her Skill With One or a Dozen Cows

In picking out the people for the milking contest to be held next week, the promoters have evidently overlooked one that should certainly be right in the front and that person is a woman, Miss Abble Knight of Newington. Today the Newington woman told the Herald man that she stood ready to go into this feature against any man in Rockingham and York counties, in fact, any man in any county. She also said "I don't care who these men are or how many cows they want to milk. I am not confining my skill to one cow or a dozen cows—they can bring along as many as they see fit. If there are any fast milkers among the women in this section, I am willing to meet them as well as the men."

It is now up to these star performers of the cow barn to get in trim for this event and if they think they are in a class with the Newington woman farmer, its up to them to produce the evidence.

RUNAWAY BOY WAS PICKED UP BY SALESMAN

After all the alarm and excitement over the runaway 16 year old Boston boy, William Bartlett, the youngster is again safe by the family fireside and the naval forces of Uncle Sam will have to do without him for some few years. The local police did not find the boy owing to the fact that he was on his way back home when the case was reported to the police department here. It appears that a sales man from Boston who recognized him on the street here took him back home.

Ira A. Newick is in Boston today on business connected with the Atlantic Corporation.

At a meeting of the Kittery Fire Dept. Chief Leo J. Flynn who has acted in that capacity for four years stated that report has come to him to the effect that the man who was elected fire ward in the district at the town election was to be made chief.

After some discussion on the matter during which Flynn offered to resign in favor of Russell Brackett, the company by a unanimous vote requested him to remain at the head of the department. The new fire ward informed the company that the chief would have nothing but his hearty cooperation in all work of the department and appealed to the company to remain as they are for the good of the town. MORE EXCITEMENT DUE IN KITTERY

Kittery has seen much excitement in the last week or so and more of it is on the way, according to the outlook and reports.

The next important affair for the townspeople is the election of a Republican town committee on Monday night. It is understood that an attempt will be made to oust some of the old guard and that the women voters have been coached up for the occasion.

A WIDELY TRAVELED BABY

In May, 1922, there was born in Mobile, Ala., to the wife of a young man, a native of, and until through school, a resident of Exeter. When two months old, the child with his mother started West and spent the summer with a surveying party of which has father was a member. They traveled entirely by motor truck across the Panhandle of Texas, New Mexico, to Colorado Springs, Col., 550 miles, living where they could, in houses and tents. From Colorado Springs, the parents came to Exeter, to the old home for a visit, thence to Washington, D. C., for the winter. The second summer was spent on the Canadian boundary, living part of the time in Canada, the rest in northern Minnesota; from there to Mobile, to visit the maternal grandfather, and later to Jacksonville, Flta. A few weeks ago they went from Jacksonville without a break to Seattle, Was., where he now is. In April the boy will go to Alaska.

FARMING

THE BIGGEST BUSINESS IN THE COUNTRY

THE war demonstrated that the country that couldn't feed itself in a time of national peril was continually in danger. The farmer is the man who makes possible the feeding of this or any nation.

Farm values today are at top notch prices. Farmers have invested millions in buildings and equipment. All this equipment, all the building, represent an investment which should have the best protection against depreciation in value.

The greatest enemy of farm buildings and machinery is weather. Decay causes losses of many millions annually. Protection against weather is one of the best insurance policies in which the farmer can invest. Good paint, properly applied furnishes this insurance.

SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINTS AND VARNISHES

Commonwealth Barn Paints, Implement Paints and Roof Paints offer the maximum protection against rain, snow, frost, heat, cold, sun and other destroying influences, They are made first of all for protection, They increase the life of your buildings and equipment—they will increase the value of your property.

Dear Friends:--

The calendar tells us that Spring is Here. Of course we know that it is up to the weather man whether or not he'll turn on the heat, but nevertheless, you who have hens, roosters and chickens, must have some repairing to do to properly care for those egg givers and their companions, and even though it is said: "Never do today what you can do tomorrow", it isn't always the best policy.

Prices haven't changed yet on Hen and Chicken Wire and we have some. Perhaps it wouldn't be a bad idea to buy early. Yours as ever,

All roads should lead to church doors tomorrow. Why not climb the steps of the Second M. E. church tomorrow? The seats are comfortable, the building warm, and folks are cordial. And this is true of other churches too. Mr. Robinson speaks on "Along Interesting Roads" in the morning. Take an interesting journey with him. In the evening his subject is "Judas the Traitor." DEMPSEY NOW IS FIGHT PROMOTER

Chicago, March 22—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, has become the financial backer of Floyd Fitzsimmons, owner of boxing arenas in Michigan City, Ind., and Benton Harbor, Mich., to assist Fitzsimmons in staging a 10-round bout between Tommy Gibbons of St. Paul and Georges Carpentier, ring idol of France, on July 4.

Fitzsimmons has confirmed reports that he was negotiating for a match between Gibbons and the Frenchman either at Benton Harbor or Michigan City, and that he hoped to close it next Tuesday, when Jack Curley, representing Carpentier, is scheduled to sign for the Frenchman. Eddie Kane, manager of Gibbons, has tentatively accepted the terms.

Fitzsimmons said that Dempsey had assured him of financial support. The Michigan City bowl is one of the best open-air arenas and was the scene of several important contests before Fitzsimmons became involved in financial difficulties.

EXPERTS SAY PRISON REFORM OVERDONE

Worcester, March 22—That the pendulum has swung entirely too far in the prison reform movement so that criminals no longer fear the punishment that they will get behind prison walls, and that about the only restrictions by which they are bound now by the prisons around New York is that they cannot visit the Great White Way in winter and Coney Island in summer, was the assertion of Police Commissioner Richard E. Enright of New York in the course of an address on "Soldiers of Peace," at a luncheon meeting of the Worcester Rotary Club in the Hotel Bancroft recently.

In referring to the many conventions and pleasure-giving features that the prisoners have, he said satirically that he had hopes that the prisons would be moved out a mile or so to permit the laying out of golf courses for the prisoners.

OPENS WAR ON N. H. TRUCKS

Fred A. Goodwin, Massachusetts state registrar of motor vehicles has written to John A. Griffin, commissioner of motor vehicles in New Hampshire, as follows:

"I am going to give directions to the police and my inspectors to insist that all New Hampshire trucks that come into this state more than 20 days shall be compelled to register here. If the authorities in your state persist in making Massachusetts trucks register before they are in the state for 20 days, then you must expect that the police officials in Massachusetts will do the same thing with New Hampshire trucks.

"I have at hand a complaint from the American Woolen Company to the effect that they were forced to register their truck in 1923, after it had been in New Hampshire only 14 days.

"I have had a number of other complaints about the manner in which the New Hampshire authorities were handling Massachusetts people. I realize that you cannot control this situation; therefore I have decided to do a little law enforcing of my own down here against New Hampshire, which will probably bring the matter to an issue."

NEW CASTLE

New Castle, March 22.—Everyone fortunate enough to be present at the community social given by the Christian Endeavor at the home of Mrs. J. E. Sylvester last evening certainly enjoyed themselves. The costumes were certainly original. Lois Noyes as "Mentholatum," Izola Prohaska as "Aunt Jemina," and Essie Ricker as "Cream of Wheat" were the best. Games and music made the evening pass all too quickly. Refreshments were served and all left for their homes at a late hour.

A business meeting and social of the Christian Endeavor will be held at the parsonage on April 2. Leland Brigham, president of the County Christian Endeavor, will give a short talk.

Virginia Cuskley is passing her spring vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cuskley of Fort Point Light.

Nelson Worden is spending the week end with his cousin, Frederick Noyes.

BROWNTAIL MOTHS ARE AGAIN THICK

The browntail moths which for the past few years have been almost extinct in this section are reported this year to be very thick and in great need of attention. For some years now the gypsy moth has been the only thing that has bothered the trees and these are looked after yearly so that they were considered under control.

The parasite imported to fight the browntails had been so successful that they were no longer considered a menace and it was somewhat of a surprise for the farmers and orchard owners to find so many nests this spring. Just why they should have come back so quickly is not known but they are nevertheless a real menace.

The browntails are more of a pest than the gypsy owing to the fact that they cause the poisonous rash.

The University of New Hampshire closes for the Spring vacation on Wednesday, Exeter closes on Monday and Dartmouth College on the 28th.

MOVE FOR PROBE OF DRY BUREAU

House May Undertake a Fifth Investigation--Engraving Inquiry Favored

Washington, March 22.—Another Congressional investigation aimed at prohibition was proposed yesterday in the House which has two inquiries under way and is expected shortly to authorize two more.

Representative Kindred, Democrat, New York, called for the appointment of a special committee to look into the administration of the Prohibition Bureau in a resolution in which he declared that the great majority of American citizens believe allegations that there is corruption "on the part of certain officials" in the Bureau.

The resolution was referred to the rules committee, which earlier in the day had recommended that an investigation be authorized of charges that a huge quantity of Government bonds have been duplication at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing.

Chairman Snell was instructed to bring up in the House at an early date the resolution, offered by Representative King, Republican, Illinois, for the Bureau of Engraving inquiry. He also has been directed to bring to a vote a resolution by Representative Nelson, Republican insurgent leader of Wisconsin, for an investigation of the aircraft industry.

The special committee authorized to look into Shipping Board affairs, after a number of preliminary executive sessions, will hold its first formal meeting tomorrow, with several Shipping Board officials before it as witnesses.

Plymouth Justice

Penal justice is being meted out by a new plan in Plymouth, Mass. Three men engaged in the jewelry business, have been found guilty of staging a fake robbery for their own profit. All have families. It is evident that if the three were sent to prison at once, their innocent families would suffer from privation. Through a novel arrangement made by the United States District Attorney, two of them have begun serving their prison sentence while the third remains at home and takes care of their business and their families. When the prisoners have served their time they will perform the same service for the condemned man now at liberty, while he serves his prison term.

This is tempering justice with mercy and common sense in an unusual degree. The arrangement seems to provide a pretty good solution for a problem that has always been a stumbling block in thee prosecution of guilty men—that if they were punished as they deserved, their families would be punished undeservingly. There would be no harm in giving the plan a wider trial.

Its chief application would necessarily be to poor men—to workingmen rather than business men, because among them the imprisonment of the wage-earner usually bears harder on the wife and children.

Would such a partnership of penalties do any harm? Would criminal offenders be more likely to offend, or less so, if they knew that they would have to take turns supporting each others' families as well as going to jail?

Capital Liquor

Congressman Tinkham of Massachusetts finds, from police reports and comparative population figures, that the District of Columbia is 300 per cent more drunken than Paris and 2000 per cent more murderous than London. The liquors and the murders seem to belong together.

Police figures, he says, "disclose a civic depravity and social disintegration, under present conditions and laws, which are both appalling and unbelievable."

These are harsh words. But such random comment regarding the liquor situation as has come from Washington in the last few months suggests that possibly they are deserved. And of they are, they certainly indate an untouched mass of evil, which should be aired and cleaned up while congress is engaged in housecleaning.

No good citizen wants any more scandal stirred up in Washington than is necessary, but it is intolerable that the national capital itself should be regarded as setting an example in lawlessness to the rest of the country. If this is slander, it should be exposed, in justice to Washington and to the public officials who live and work there. If it is true, there should be a clean sweep of the prohibition broom, lest prohibition become a similar farce throughout the entire country.

A New Hotel Plan

A sort of nickel-in-the-slot hotel is to be erected in Waterloo, Ia. The structure is to cost about $1,000,000. It will have all the modern conveniences and luxuries which have become customary in up-to-date hotels. It will even offer a few new details of arrangement and service especially planned for the automobile tourists. Yet prices are to be kept down and no guest will have to pay for any more of these modern facilities than he uses.

Thus rooms without baths may be had for a moderate price. But if a bath is wanted the guest may have it, not by taking a higher-priced room, but by dropping a half dollar into a slot when a door will open and the bath is available. Radio entertainment and telephone service will be available, too, for a 5-cent fee dropped into its proper slot. Whether waiters, bellhops and other hotel employees will carry about with them convenient receptacles into which nickels or dimes or quarters must be dropped, in order to obtain desired services, is not disclosed.

From the travelers' standpoint, this "pay-for-what-you-get" system may be an improvement over the other one of paying for what you might have if you wanted everything. The plan is experimental and its outcome will be watched with interest and by other hotel managers.

You can fancy little groups of horses all over the British Empire putting their heads together when a certain young man becomes king, and telling each other how they threw him when he was Prince of Wales.

It is hoped that the senate will refrain from extending its investigation to include liquor, dragging the nation's most prominent bootleggers into the polluted atmosphere of Washington and injuring their reputations.

Some 100 per cent Americans regard it as a very suspicious thing that Europe lately should be doing everything Americans ask it to.

Cheer up. In Mexico they have to make income tax returns every month.

NOTED SPEAKER COMING

Mme. Panafidine to Talk on Her Life in Soviet Russia

The people of Portsmouth are to have an exceptional opportunity on April 10th to hear Mme. Pierre Conafidine, who will speak at the Rockingham Hotel, under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. on "My Life in Soviet Russia."

Born in Persia of American parents she was married to a Russian diplomat with whom she lived for many years in various parts of the east. Up to the age of sixteen she lived in Persia, then for five years in America, completing her education, and later for five years in Meshed (Persia), five in Bagdad, nine in Constantinople, and two in Central Asia. Her intimate contact with persons of all nations in diplomatic circles made her a witness of much unpublished history, which sheds much light on events which were obscure without the knowledge of these happenings which she possesses. Those who have read Mme. Ponafidine's articles on "Russia" in the Atlantic Monthly will be especially anxious to hear her speak.

PEOPLE'S OPINIONS

A Suggestion

Editor Herald:

Pierce Island, having been purchased by the city for a summer garden, and the bridge connecting it with the mainland is in prospect, I would like to suggest at its dedication a name which is both historical and appropriate.

On its bank facing the ocean and at present seen from all sides of the river, is the earthworks of Fort Washington, built in 1775 and strongly armed and garrisoned as a protestion to opr city during the Revolution under Captain Salter Tredick and again armed and equipped in 1812-15.

How can we better perpetuate its history than by naming our new possession Fort Washington Park.

MAJOR KNOX SPEAKS AT RYE

A largely attended and interesting gathering was held at the Rye town hall last evening under the direction of the Rye Community Club, at which Major Frank Knox, publisher of the Manchester Union-Leader was the speaker. Major Knox took for his subject "Why I Am An Optimist." He told of conditions in foreign countries and the part that America had played in them. He then outlined what New Hampshire should do and what it could do and the certainty of its people coming back from the west and utilizing New Hampshire farms. He advocated the merit of some sort of a systematic marketing so that the farmers could get the full returns for their work. Music was furnished by the newly organized Rye Junior High School orchestra which rendered a very pleasing program.

WILL REPRESENT YORK COUNTY

Albert M. Bragdon, treasurer and cashier of the York County Trust Company, of York, has accepted the challenge of Dr. John H. Neal of this city, and will enter the Cow Milking contest a week from today on Market Sq. at 10 a. m. This definitely decides who will contend from York County and Rockingham County and has brought the matter down to a point where there certainly will be considerable interest, for both Mr. Bragdon and Dr. Neal are exceptionally well known in their respective counties, and also the cows that they will milk will come from farms that have a reputation of having fine milkers.

R. L. Costello will act as a second for Mr. Bragdon, and Dr. Neal will have Dr. Haven T. Paul as a second in the contest. The contest is creating intense interest among the farmers and people in the suburban towns and the fact that these two prominent men will compete has added further interest.

The committee will plan to have Mae McInnis, who had requested to be entered in the contest, but who of course was also from Rockingham County, give a demonstration of plain and fancy milking to entertain the crowd previous to the big contest and it is planned to have a cow from Brackett's Farm for this affair.

HOUSE FAVORS AN ARMS CONFERENCE

Amendment to Naval Appropriation Bil Asks President to Seek Naval Session

Washington, March 22.—The House went on record yesterday in favor of another armament conference. An amendment was adopted to the Naval Appropriation bill which would request the President to initiate a move for an international conference to consider further limitation of competitive naval armament.

The House declined, however, to add to the amendment the proviso that steps should be taken toward the holding of a conference whenever there was reasonable prospect, in the opinion of the President, of its success.

The amendment offered by Representative Byrnes, Democrat, South Carolina, was adopted by a viva voce vote. The modification which was rejected, 64 to 44, was proposed by Representative French, Republican, Ida., in charge of the bill.

Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan would be requested, under the amendment, to participate in the conference, which would discuss limitation of submarine and surface craft of less than 10,000 tons, and aircraft.

Mr. French said President Coolidge and Secretary Hughes were convinced that the time was not now opportune for such a conference.

A final vote on the bill, which carries approximately $272,000,000, was blocked late in the day by the demand of Representative Blanton, Democrat, Texas, for a record vote on his motion to recommit the bill fo amendment regarding stop watches time-measuring devices in navy ya or arsenals.

The bill carries $660,000 to be u in developing a satisfactory engine fleet submarines.

Boys under 21 years could not enl in the navy except by written conse of their parents, under an amendm to the Naval bill adopted today by th House.

The amendment offered by Representative Connally, Democrat, Texas, wa approved, 119 to 104. It is subject to another vote before final passage of the bill.

LITTLE WORKERS IN GOOD CAUSE

Rogers Mission Circle Activities at North Church Parish House

The Rogers Mission Circle of the North church, said to be the oldest continuous missionary society in the country, is doing most commendable work. It has an enrolment of 180 boys and girls, whose ages are from about six to fourteen years. A visit to the North church parish house during one of the work meetings of the circle is most interesting and gives evidence of the work of the little folks for the mission cause and the instilling into their young minds the thought of helpfulness for others. There is also the opportunity at each work meeting for the girls to be taught basketry, sewing and embroidery and the boys are taught wood work. Then when work is over a short religious service is held after which all are served hot cocoa and fancy wafers. During the year two tea meetings are held when the circle members enjoy a supper, followed by games and a stereopticon talk.

Mrs. Laura M. Sumner is in general charge of the circle. Mrs. C. C. Abbott has charge of the crocheting, Mrs. Horace Rowe the basketry, Miss Ardene Lance has charge of the youngest children, Mrs. W. A. Densmore teaches sewing and Mr. Billingham, teacher of manual arts at the High school, has charge of the wood work. Mrs. Littlefield is his assistant.

The officers of the circle are:
President, Mrs. Laura W. Sumner.
Vice president, Miss Ardine Lance.
Secretary, Miss Rachael Slayton.
Treasurer, Miss Dorothy Walton.

A room down stairs in the parish house is devoted to the youngest children and here they gather and cut out bright colored pictures from papers and magazines to be used for scrap books to send to children who will appreciate them, many being arranged to send to Japan. After the clipping is over a story is read to all the children. Miss Ardine Lance is in charge here, assisted by the Misses Irene Harvey, Dorothy Walton, Esther Pickles and Felicia Gray.

Groups of circle members also work in the three upper rooms. At a recent work meeting of the circle the visitors saw some very dainty needlework being done by these young misses. Some were dressing dolls for the coming sale, making crocheted scarfs, dolls' carriage robes, embroidering towels or dollies and the work was well done and showed the interest all felt in having it look well.

Basketry is taught in another room and here the little folks make some dainty baskets of various styles which will be sold at the annual sale and entertainment of the circle to be held next month. The boys make many useful and pretty articles of wood.

After work is over the groups gather in a lower room where a religious service is held in charge of Mrs. Sumner. Hymns are sung, Mrs. Thayer presiding at the piano. A short missionary talk is given, that at the recent work meeting being on "Japan" and given by Mrs. Sumner. An interesting story relating to Japan was given by Miss Edith Brewster. At the close of the gathering cocoa and fancy wafers were served all.

When the Rogers Mission Circle has its sale and entertainment next month the work of these boys and girls will be on sale and it should interest many. Each year the circle in this way raises a sum of money for the Mission cause, while the entertainment presented at that time is well worth while and the audience fills the assembly room of the parish house.

$45,000 More for Charlestown Yard

The house committee on naval affairs on Friday acted favorably on the amendment offered by Congressman Dallinger of Massachusetts and added $45,000 to the naval appropriation bill for a new roof for the foundry building at the Charlestown yard. The bill as reported from the committee carried a total of $175,000 for repairs at the Boston yard, but this did not include provision for the foundry roof and Dallinger succeeded in convincing the house that the roof was urgently needed.

WYOMING WRECK IS CLEARED AWAY

Boston, March 20—Three spars that stood out of water from the wreck of the six-masted schooner Wyoming, sunk in Pollock Rip Shoals during the storm last week with loss of all on board, have been removed. The channel through Pollock is now clear and the derelict is no longer a menace to navigation in that dangerous section.

Wireless message from the United States coast guard cutter Acushnet to the office of Coast Guard District Commander P. H. Uberoth today announced the removal of three masts and two sunken spars from the wreck. The sunken spars were towed by the cutter to Bearse's Shoal near Monomoy Point on the tip of Cape Cod, where they were moored far from navigable water. The three masts from the schooner were taken aboard the Acushnet and are to be landed at Woods Hole.

The wreckage with the two masts showing above water about a half-mile from the wreck of the Wyoming, and believed to be a part of the wreck that broke away, still remains, but is out of the main channel and no danger to navigation.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIAL

A young people's social was held by the Middle Street Baptist society on Wednesday evening in the Baptist chapel. Games were played and refreshments of ice cream and fancy wafers served.

WEAK, RUN DOWN AFTER SICKNESS

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Mrs. Dube Well and Strong

E. Hartford, Conn.—"After a severe sickness I was so weak that I could not do my housework, so my mother told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The first bottle helped me so much that I took six more bottles and felt fine. I have just given birth to a nice baby girl and am feeling strong and well. So different from the way I felt before. I am taking the Vegetable Compound right along while nursing. The baby seems to be in good health, and my friends say they see a big change for the better in me."—Mrs. EUGENE DUBE, 59 Woodbridge Street, East Hartford, Connecticut.

The Vegetable Compound is a splendid medicine to bring back health and strength. Many mothers have found this true, as did Mrs. Dube. Ask some of your neighbors and friends, for there are women everywhere who know by experience the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

BACK of the men on the operating floor at the gas works, back of the fellows who come around to interview your gas meter every month, back of the loyal men and women who are putting the spirit of coal into your homes, there stands a splendid tradition.

Interruption of service is practically unknown. Short of conditions bordering on calamity, it has never happened.

The gas business is a 24-hour 365 1-4 day industry, winter and summer, bad times or good times. The fires must never go out, and service must be constant, never failing, always on tap. Such are the traditions of this industry, now in the second century of its existence, the oldest of our so-called modern utility services.

TO HOLD WOMEN'S TOURNAMENT HERE

Directors of N. H. Golf Association Set Dates for the Annual Championship Events

At a meeting of the board of directors of the New Hampshire Golf association held on Friday at the Manchester Country Club, it was voted to hold the annual state championship tournament at the Maplewood Club in Bethlehem on July 17, 18, 19.

The women's championship will be held at the Portsmouth Country Club on Aug. 18, 19, 20.

While the details of the tournament were left to the tournament committee it was decided to have a 36 holes qualifying round, the first eight to qualify for the championship and the finals of the championship to be 18 holes. The second and other flights will in sixteens and the finals in these will all be 18 holes. This is different from previous years where there has been an 18 hole qualifying round and an 18 holes match play including the finals. The new method is considered by the association to be a better test of golf and more than likely to bring the players of championship calibre into the first eight.

President A. B. Jenks appointed the following committees and they were approved by the directors:

Rules—George A. Place, Concord, chairman; Charles E. Tilton, Franklin, and L. A. Dowling, Manchester.

Tournament—R. D. McDonough, Portsmouth, chairman; O. M. Flather, Nashua; Fred M. Caswell, Manchester; Joel F. Sheppard, Dover; E. H. Neal, Rochester.

Handicap committee—George E. McClintock, Manchester, chairman; Samuel Dearborn, Nashua; Boardman M. Randall, Portsmouth; A. P. Fairfield, Hanover and F. J. Sulloway, Concord.

Nominations—George E. McClintock, Manchester, chairman; Dr. F. L. Keay, F. J. Sulloway, Concord; Samuel Dearborn, Nashua; Boardman M. Randall, Portsmouth.

A committee on entertainment at the state tournament will be named by the president.

The directors were the luncheon guests of President A. B. Jenks.

Another year the Manchester Country Club will be in condition for the championship and the Nashua Country Club will also want the tournament after that, with the Hanover Country Club with its 18 hole course ready in a few years. The state association will probably not go into the mountains for several years after this year.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine will do what we claim for it—rid your system of Catarrh or Deafness caused by Catarrh.

The football schedule is as follows: Oct. 4, Pinkerton Academy; 11, Westbrook Seminary; 18, Tilton school; 24, Kimball Union Academy; Nov. 1, University of Maine freshmen; 7, Colby Academy at New London.

RAILROAD NOTES

Change Time April 27

The Boston and Maine will likely change the schedule of trains on April 27 to meet the situation caused by the Massachusetts daylight saving time. The schedule will be the same as last year with nearly all the local trains running one hour earlier.

B. & A. Retired Official Dead

G. Fred Snow, for several years general freight agent for the Bangor and Aroostook railroad, died recently in Bangor. For many years he was in the employ of the European and North American Railroad, until it was taken over by the Maine Central, and he later became private secretary to President F. W. Cram of the Bangor and Aroostook Railroad. He retired in 1917.

A Forehanded Chap

Some of the engineers on the Boston and Maine think they have a little oil scandal of their own, and they are good-naturedly joshing one of their number, with headquarters at the local roundhouse for having in his storage closet a little more oil than the rules of the road prescribe. Not with any criminal intent, be it understood, but he is one of these forehanded chaps who always looks after his share of the supplies, a rather commendable characteristic.—Newburyport News.

Lost and Damage Claims

The lost and damage claims of the several divisions of the Boston and Maine for December 1923, are the following: Berkshire $12,324, Fitchburg $9,984, Southern $8,270, Portland $7,234 Terminal $2,261, Conn. River $2,407, Passumpsic $1591, White Mountain $1,568, W. N. and P. $5,092. The loses are the result of fire, robbery, rough handling, delay, wrecks, improper storing.

MUCH INTEREST IN TUFTS GAMES

There was more interest in the New England interscholastic basketball championship, which opened at the Tufts College gymnasium on Friday, than was generally expected here, considering the fact that Portsmouth was not in the tournament. There were a great many calls during the evening for the first and second rounds. Manchester High has worked its way through two games, winning both bi close scores.

BOWLING

Rand Wins Rolloff

Twenty-two men figured in the roll off at the Arcade on Friday night which was won by Rand, with O'Brien four behind. This is the largest number of bowlers to appear for a roll off this season. SEEK REPAIRS AT FARRAGUT SCHOOL

Parent-Teacher Association Names Committee to Take Up Matter

The regular meeting of the Farragut Parent-Teacher Association was held at the school house on Friday evening, the president, Richard H. Philbrick, presiding.

The need of repairs and improvements to the school house were discussed and a committee was named to present recommendations to the school board, consisting of James H. Wicks, Miss Alice S. Mildram and Mrs. Edward Johnson.

The members were enthusiastic over the fact that the Farragut boys won the basketball championship in the school games of the city. It was voted to tender a reception to the victors, and a committee to arrange for the same was appointed by the president. The committee consists of E. Oscar Pinkham, Mrs. Samuel H. Harris and Mrs. James H. Wicks.

Mrs. James J. Morrison, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Wicks were elected members of the refreshment committee to fill vacancies for the remainder of the year.

A pleasing musical program was rendered by the pupils of the sixth grade under the direction of Mrs. J. A. Aucoin. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Blanche Dunlap and games were enjoyed by all present.

GOOD GAME HERE TONIGHT

The Traip Academy and Berwick Academy basketball teams will play their tie game at Freeman's hall this evening and it promises to be a good game. Both teams will be accompanied by a good number of rooters and there should be a big crowd present, as it will probably be the last basketball game of the season here.

KITTERY

At the morning service at the Second Methodist church Mrs. Fred Rounds will sing "How Beautiful Upon the Mountains" by F. Flaxington Harker. There will be a duet by Mrs. Rounds and Mrs. Widell.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish at this time to express my heartfelt thanks and appreciation to my neighbors and friends for their kindness to me and mine in the time of my trouble and bereavement. Also for the many beautiful floral tributes.

JOHN H. CALL.

MANCHESTER TEAM REACHES SEMI-FINALS

Manchester High school basketball team foughts its way through to the semi-finals in the New England interscholastic championship tournament at Tufts College yesterday by defeating Fitchburg High 24 to 23 in the first round and Salem High 24 to 20 in the second round. Manchester met Brockton High in the semi-finals at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

As a result of the opening games yesterday the fight was narrowed down to Manchester, Pittsfield, Mass., Brockton, Mass., and New Haven Commercial High, which won the championship in one of the previous tournaments. The New Haven and Pittsfield game will be played at 2 o'clock and the winner of this contest and the Manchester-Brockton game will meet in the final this evening.

All of the teams which were considered favorites were eliminated yesterday. Holyoke, a ruling favorite, was eliminated in the first round. Burlington, Vt., was also eliminated. Burlington has reached the semi-finals for the past two years, but could not keep up the pace yesterday. Salem had an enviable record of only one defeat in two and a half years.

In the Manchester-Salem game last night the Salem team tied the score at the end of the half but the best it could do was trail by one or two points through the remainder of the game. The game was the scrappiest of the tournament and the result was in doubt until the final whistle. Manchester displayed a superlative passing game.

Laconia was eliminated in the first round, losing to Salem 13 to 5. The first half ended with the count at 5 all, but Laconia was unable to score in the second half.

LOCAL OPERATORS TO HANDLE TOLL CALLS IN PORTLAND EXCHANGE

Portsmouth One of the N. H. Cities That Will be Called Under New System

On Monday the telephone calls from Portland to Boston will be handled through the local operator instead of the toll operator.

Under the new system adopted by the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company the number will be given direct to the local operator, and the subscriper will hold the line while the connection is being made in Boston. If the subscriber does not know the number he desires in Boston he will be connected directly with Boston information.

The new orders affect 63 exchanges in greater Boston and its suburbs.

Already many of the long distance calls in Maine are handled in this fashion. All Augusta, Brunswick, Gardiner, Lewiston, Rockland and Waterville calls go through the local room, as well as calls to four New Hampshire exchanges: Dover, North Conway, Portsmouth and Concord. In each instance where this service, known as the "number only" service, has been introduced it has met with approval, and has made possible the more rapid putting-through of calls.

SPRING OPENING IS ATTRACTING MUCH INTEREST

One week from today hundreds of people from Portsmouth and surrounding towns will have opportunity to see the finest display of Spring goods ever shown in this city, for an unusually large number of stores have combined to make this event a success.

The program arranged by the merchants is certainly a rather unique one and gives opportunity all day long for people to view the windows.

Curtains will cover the official store windows from the time they start decorating until 10.30 a. m. on Saturday morning. At that hour the curtains will be withdrawn and the shoppers will see the goods on display for the first time. The curiosity aroused by the covered windows and also by the fact that the public is not able to see the decorators at work creates quite a little interest.

Interest is already manifest in the shopping trip of Miss Portsmouth and Mr. Portsmouth, for these two people will be in the stores during the afternoon and evening next Saturday and if you approach the right one and say, "Pardon me, Miss Portsmouth, (or Mr. Portsmouth), did you ever see such beautiful windows?" you will receive a certificate for $5 in trade. It will be remembered that last Spring this proved to be a decided hit and several local people were the receivers of these valuable certificates.

Live models will also be shown in many windows at 2.30 p. m. Many stores are planning to carry such displays. Foye's Department Store expects to surpass the live model show of last year and have made arrangements to have here models from the Betty Wales Company of New York. The White Store is another place that will have a bevy of beautiful girls here from Boston to display their spring apparel. Practically all the stores are planning action of some sort in the windows, one having some Chinese people playing Mah Jong, another demonstrating the latest bathtub connections, and other similar stunts, bringing to the attention of the public the latest goods in all lines.

Of course the cow milking contest in the morning will be a fine start for the day's program and many requests are being made to enter the contest by milkers.

The cows will be on the band stand in the square promptly at 10 o'clock that morning. Overalls for the contestants are to be furnished by Simpson Bros., while the latest milk pails will be loaned by various hardware dealers. The milk from the cows is already being bid for by several local drug stores to be used in milk shakes during the day. Restaurants are planning to care for a large number of people who will come here for the entire day as the program is a lengthy one. Stores are making preparations to have unusual displays inside the stores, as well as in the windows, and the public in general will learn what stores are participating in this event by watching for the official advertising in this paper the latter part of next week, and also the official window signs.

WILL LECTURE ON BUILDING

Mayor Orel A. Dexter, members of the City Council and Board of Public Works have all been invited by the officers of the Warwick Club and the Chamber of Commerce to attend the lecture and moving pictures to be presented in the Warwick Club room on March 25, by Field Engineer W. A. Rowell of the Portland Cement association.

Marvellous progress will be depicted on the screen, showing many examples of concrete construction in New Hampshire. The intricate process of making cement from the rock in the mountains, through the several milling processes to its incorporation in structures of all descriptions, will be shown in the pictures.

The talk starts at 8 o'clock and during the course of the pictures the process of building for one thousand years back will be shown, so that those attending should certainly have an interesting evening.
